MOBILE & COMFORTABLE

If you are looking for some of the most contemporary yet simple designs in office chairs, this armless nesting chair from OfficeSource® is the one you should opt for. You can make it a part of your break room furniture at work, use it as an optional chair at a workstation, or even use it in meeting rooms. This chair features an armless design with a mesh back, so you can sit comfortably for long periods of time. The seat comes in a comfortable black PU leather upholstery and meshes well with any environment. However, what takes the utility of this chair to a whole new level is its folding design. You can easily fold the chair for storage, and only use it when needed. This chair also comes with casters attached to its elegant titanium frame for easy mobility.
